

PIE HOPES

Kern's Kitchen workers, from left, Glen Rupp, David Hall, John Sutton and Alan Rupp put wedges together Sunday for a 500-pound Derby-Pie that was sliced and sold at Oxmoor Center yesterday. At right, Joyce Blair performed cosmetic work on a giant slice before it was assembled into the big pie. Pieces will be sold again today for $1 each at the shopping mall, with proceeds going to benefit the WHAS Crusade for Children.

STAFF PHOTOS
BY JAMES H. WALLACE